

My collaboration team regularly works on common assessments

My collaboration team regularly uses common assessment data to drive instructional practices.

My collaboration team regularly works on discussing individual student needs.

My collaboration team regularly works on implementing a guaranteed and viable curriculum that is mapped for the year.

My collaboration team regularly works on interventions for students not meeting the standards.

My collaboration team regularly works on extensions for students who have met the standards.

My collaboration team regularly works on effective teaching practices.

I am willing to discuss student achievement data with my team during collaboration.

My teammates are willing to openly discuss their student achievement data with my team during collaboration.

My teammates are willing to discuss their teaching practices with my team during collaboration.

Our team's collaborative efforts have resulted in increasing student achievement in my classes.

My students regularly benefit from my team's collaborative efforts.

My teaching practices have improved because of collaboration.

I have received adequate training in PLC.

I support the expectations for collaboration.

My teammates support the expectations for collaboration.

My administrator(s) regularly visits and participates with our team.

I believe all students can learn at high levels.

My teammates believe all students can learn at high levels.

